

Alzheimer's & Dementia Care

- 1) T F Dementia is characterized by loss of or a decline in memory and other cognitive function.
- 2) T F The most common form of dementia is Alzheimer's disease.
- 3) T F It is not necessary to introduce yourself and explain what service you are going to provide with a resident who has dementia.
- 4) T F Smiling while approaching slowly and calmly is a method that can work with a resident who has dementia.
- 5) T F Everyone with dementia is an individual with the right to dignity, respect, and the best quality of life we can give them.
- 6) T F Touch with compassion is one source of caregiving that might ease the burden and enhance life.
- 7) T F When touch is offered in a compassionate, skillful, and caring way, it can be effective in eliciting a response, even in the final stage of the disease.
- 8) T F When transporting a resident via a wheelchair always approach from the front.
- 9) T F Other types of dementia include but are not limited to:
  - a. Lewy Body
  - b. Vascular dementia and Pick Disease
  - c. Parkinson's Disease
  - d. All of the above